We would like to bring to your kind notice that pursuant to the LODR regulations, the format of Shareholding pattern to be filed by the listed companies has undergone a change. SEBI has issued a circular in this regard directing the depositories to provide the shareholders' data with Clubbing of Pan(Both Promoters and Public) in line with the revised classifications. However, the benpos report received by us from NSDL and CDSL for 30/06/16 are having old codes only. In the absence of new codes, we will be unable to generate the report in Regulation 31 format.

We have send mail and letters to NSDL and CDSL in this regard, for which we have not received any response. However, on oral enquiry with BSE, we were asked to submit the report in the revised format based on the existing codes itself. Although it may not reflect the correct picture, BSE had indicated that the companies can file in the revised(Reg 31)format with existing codes itself.

Accordingly, we have prepared the shareholding pattern report in revised Regulation 31 format with existing codes as received from NSDL and CDSL. Kindly note that it may not be 100% accurate in terms of sub – classification in public category.

Kindly check shareholding pattern before you submit to stock exchange. As per the revised shareholding pattern, the details of warrants, convertible securities, if any shall be included. However, as we have the data pertaining to equity shares only, you are requested before forwarding to the stock exchange to fill up the columns pertaining to warrants, Convertible Securities, SIGNIFICANT BENEFICIAL OWENERS(TABLE-V)etc., if applicable to your company.

We request you to kindly verify the details pertaining to Promoters with reference to partly Paid shares and DR details, before forwarding the same to stock Exchanges.

We have prepared the details of Promoter and Promoter Group as per the information provided/available with us. We request you to kindly check the same before filling with Stock Exchanges. In case of any change, please inform the same to enable us to incorporate and send you a fresh report.

Kindly acknowledge receipt.

Thanking You,
Yours faithfully,
